Seek Adoption Of Soft Drink Ordinance Here

Women of St. James's M. E. Church Ask Common Council to Take Action in Matter—Aldermen Discuss Snow Removal—County and Towns Praised for Clearing County Roads.

The proposed soft drink ordinance for Kingston; the question of snow removal and the appointment of a committee of five to wait on the board of public works, and Alderman O'Reilly's inquiry as to whether Alderman Mann's resolution regarding the mayors' conference at Albany in March was "simply a little excursion for the aldermen," were the principal matters taken up at a meeting of the common council Tuesday evening, which was attended by Aldermen Haines, Moore, Fox, Mann, Radel, Clare, O'Reilly, Everett, Smith and Flannery, with President Dempsey presiding. The absentees were Aldermen DeGarmo, Schip and Nelson.

New Lights in City Hall. Alderman Everett, chairman of the building and supply committee, called the attention of the common council to the new electric lights that had been installed in the lower corridor of the city hall and also in the city court room. The lower corridor was also being freshened with a coat of paint. Fred R. DeGarmo installed the lights and F. P. Messinger did the painting.

Mayors' Conference. City Clerk Styles read a communication from Secretary Capes, of the state mayors' conference, calling attention to the annual conference to be held in Albany on March 11, when a number of important matters would come up for discussion.

Alderman Mann offered a resolution that Mayor Block, Corporation Counsel Jenkins and any member of the council who so desired should attend the conference, the expenses to be paid by the city.

O'Reilly Wanted to Know. "What is this, just a little excursion for the aldermen?" asked Alderman O'Reilly of the Ninth ward, in question following Alderman Everett's statement that he was attending the conference which was attended by every mayor in the state and also by large numbers of city officials. Some cities were largely represented at the annual conference of many matters of vital importance were brought out at the session. Alderman Everett said it paid an alderman to attend the sessions as he would receive many new and valuable ideas. He said that last year the mayor, corporation counsel, Alderman Schip and himself had attended the convention and their expenses were not over $5.

"You don't have to have the city pay your expenses," said Alderman Everett, "you can attend the conference and pay your own expenses."

"I know, I know," said Alderman O'Reilly, "but it's the same old gas, the city's motto is pay, pay all the time."

The resolution was adopted.

Council Opposes Bill. A communication was read from the mayors' conference in regard to Assembly Bill No. 732, stating that the National and State banking interests are using every effort to have the bill adopted and asking that the city go on record as opposed to the adoption of the bill which would reduce the bank state tax, thereby cutting down the revenue in each city and village. Alderman Clare moved a resolution that the city go on record as opposed to the bill, which was adopted.

Urges Soft Drink Law. The women of St. James's M. E. church sent in a communication stating that they were interested in the ordinance which had been introduced and known as the soft drink ordinance.

"We understand you deemed it wise to postpone consideration of the proposed ordinance until after election. That time has long since passed and the matter lies still in limbo, and we the women of St. James's M. E. church of voting age, have adopted the following resolution: That the common council be urged to take action at the earliest possible moment in order to have the soft drink ordinance adopted and also suggesting that the fee of $5 for licenses be reduced."

The communication was referred to the laws and rules committee, which also has the resolution from the Kingston Ministerial Association, asking the adoption of the proposed ordinance which is in the committee's hands.

Snow Removal Discussed. Alderman Everett said that he had been asked to bring before the common council a resolution of snow removal. He had been asked to bring before the common council a resolution of snow removal. He had been asked to bring before the common council a resolution of snow removal.

Some Streets Closed. Alderman Everett asked if any streets had been closed for the common council to have streets opened to traffic.

Alderman Styles of the Second ward was called on for a statement.

Ferry Was Fast In Heavy Ice

Transport Ferry had Rudder Damaged Late Tuesday and This Morning Was Fast in Heavy Ice, but Resumed Regular Trips When Released by Tug Rob.

The ferry Transport, plying between Kingston and Rhinecliff, sustained the most trouble of the winter last Tuesday afternoon and this morning when she had her rudder damaged and later ran on an ice pack and was hauled off by the Cornell Line tug Rob, but this afternoon the ferry was again running close to schedule time.

Tuesday a very high wind blew practically all day on the Hudson river and late that afternoon while the Transport was running across the river she was blown almost completely around and her rudder was damaged to such an extent by the heavy ice that she was forced to cease trips until repairs were made to the rudder at the Cornell Shops.

Workmen worked all night getting the ferry ready for today's trip with the heavy ice and about 9 o'clock she began to make trips but was caught in heavy ice a short distance below the Cornell Shops where the ice formed a jam. She ran upon the ice and was unable to free herself and called for the tug Rob which hauled her off.

While the ferry was being repaired and being gotten ready to resume trips the tug Rob carried foot passengers back and forth across the river.

The cold spell of Tuesday night made considerable ice in the river and Rondout creek, and it was necessary for the tug to cut through the newly formed ice to open the ferry channel across the river.

200 At Shanghai Face Execution

Shanghai, Feb. 17.—Shifting political fortunes of succeeding Chinese commanders controlling the Shanghai area, have been keeping alive over 200 unfortunates who expected to be dead long ago, but fate is fast overtaking them and Shanghai for the next few weeks will witness a series of gruesome executions.

The 200 men, who are now living on borrowed time, are the Chinese prisoners under sentence of death in the prisons of the international and French settlements, some of whom have been in custody for more than a year. In conjunction with the heads of the present Chinese regime, the foreign authorities have lately completed arrangements, as was done before, to carry out the ends of justice. By reason of this five to ten condemned men from each of the concessions will be executed each week until all the culprits now in custody are disposed of.

When the warfare just outside Shanghai came to an end late in 1924, administration of the Chinese area adjoining the settlements became completely disrupted, a condition that has continued for more than a year.

In his brief rule, General Shing Shih-Lien, Fengtien commander, ousted four months ago, undertook to receive the condemned men, then numbering about 150. It was announced that trials would take place regularly until all the criminals had been disposed of.

Will Consider Debt Pacts Later

Washington, Feb. 17.—The six foreign debt settlements, topped by the much opposed Italian pact, have not been abandoned by Senate Republicans, they said today, even though they were ignored by the Republican steering committee in its legislative program.

The debt pacts, while shelved for the present, will be taken up "later in the session," it was announced by Senator Wadsworth, Republican of New York, chairman. The debts were laid aside, Wadsworth explained, because they were not considered pressing. The committee, however, failed to set any future date for their consideration.

"The committee's action," said Wadsworth, "doesn't indicate the slightest hostility to the debt settlements on the part of members of the steering committee. The Italian and other pacts will be considered in due time."

TEACHER WHIPPED BOYS WITH A RUBBER HOSE. Albany, N. Y., Feb. 17.—Public School No. 16, today found remedied by the school board for having whipped two of her young pupils with a rubber hose.

Miss Burr was accused by William Scher of beating his son, Bernard, 7, and William, 6, with the hose. She insisted the teacher be dismissed.

Miss Burr said the boys were difficult to discipline and she was forced to use corporal punishment. The school board voted to uphold her.

Boy Violated School Rules. Albany, Feb. 17.—John Lomenzo of Tully, N. Y., was fined $10 by Judge Cooper in Federal court today for violating the prohibition laws.

Bernsteins 75 Years in Business

Well Known Wall Street Clothiers to Begin Celebration Saturday of Founding Business by the Late Isaac Bernstein.

Commencing with Saturday of this week, Sam Bernstein & Company will start celebrating the seventy-fifth anniversary of the establishment of their business. It was just seventy-five years ago that Isaac Bernstein, the father of Sam, started in business on North Front street near Crown; a few years later, his business having increased rapidly, he erected and moved into the three story building on North Front street, now owned and occupied by S. Baker & Son.

Not so many years later he found these quarters altogether too small for his ever increasing business and he erected the large three story brick building on the corner of Wall and North Front street on the site of the old Christopher Tappan house, which was used by General George Clinton while serving as governor and which was the first Executive Mansion of the state. At the time Mr. Bernstein moved into this new building, which was in 1873, it was the largest mercantile building in the city, and the same business has been carried on there until the present day, although a few years ago the firm was obliged to take over a part of another building to accommodate the trade.

The name of Bernstein for the past seventy-five years in this community has stood for everything that was upright, honorable and progressive in the civic, business and philanthropic life of the city. Isaac Bernstein was one of the founders and first directors of the Kingston Savings Bank. Sam Bernstein, the senior member of the present firm, is a trustee of the Kingston Savings Bank, at the present time and has filled many important offices in the city, among which are the president of the Chamber of Commerce and president of the board of education. Sam Bernstein, Jr., is the general manager of the business at the present time and under his direction many changes have been made and new departments added so that today it stands out as one of the largest men's furnishing concerns between New York and Albany.

Not only have they been fair and just with their customers but with their employees as will be evidenced from the fact that John D. Tibbals has been in their employ for the past 25 years, Clarence H. Haubenbeck for 23 years, Frank M. McCann for the past 16 years and several others from five to twelve years.

The record of this firm is one worth while emulating.

Youthful College Students Elope

Both Have Been Spending Summer Vacation at Poughkeepsie—Each Is 21 Years Old—Parents Shocked—Groom's Father Calls It "Disgraceful."

Another collegiate elopement came to light Tuesday night. It was announced that Henry E. Dexter and Miss Doris F. Jefferson, both of Bayonne, N. J., had been married without their parents' knowledge in Rockville, Md.

Both bride and bridegroom are 21. Dexter at present is a freshman at the University of Virginia. He is a son of Dr. Henry and Dr. Harriet Dexter, of No. 293 Avenue C, Bayonne. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Walter Jefferson, of No. 104 West Thirty-seventh street, Bayonne.

Boy's Mother Stunned. News of the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Millard F. Nick, rector of the Christ Episcopal Church, Rockville, Md., Tuesday, was received with different reactions by the parents of the pair.

When informed of her son's marriage, Mrs. Dexter collapsed.

Dr. Dexter termed the affair a "disgraceful episode." He said the marriage did not meet with his approval.

Engaged Two Years. Mrs. Jefferson, when informed, declared that while she thought the pair were "too young to marry," the news did not come as any great shock to her. She said her daughter and young Dexter had been engaged for two years.

According to her mother, the present Mrs. Dexter, Jr., left a week ago to attend the midwinter session at the University of Virginia. She did not tell her family of any intention she had of getting married, her mother said.

Both Mr. Dexter and his bride are known in their community. Both have been summer visitors. During the past few years both have dropped with their parents during the summer season at the Poughkeepsie Hotel.

Someone Ties To Him. Lexington, Ky., Feb. 17.—Roger Hamilton, of Campbell and R. C. Davis of Rochester, N. Y., convicted of killing William Nelson Felt, a young man, in a police court here on a charge of murder, today were sentenced to be executed on March 26.

Justice E. C. Ford pronounced sentences of death on the two men today.

They were taken to the prison at 10 o'clock today.

Mother Bravely Dies in Flames With 6 Children

Mrs. Edmund Teale and Her Six Children Are Burned to Death—Teale and Oldest Daughter Escape But Former Was Badly Burned and Injured.

Central Bridge, N. Y., Feb. 17.—A mother and six children were burned to death here early today when fire, believed to have started from a defective chimney, destroyed a two story building.

The dead are Mrs. Edmund Teale and her six children. The husband and the oldest daughter, Catherine, escaped, but Teale was badly burned. The Teale family lived on the second floor of the building, the first floor being used for a barber shop.

Neighbors were unaware of the fire until Teale ran from his home, his clothes afire, calling for help. The flames spread to other buildings, and for a time it was feared the entire business section of this small town would be wiped out.

Fire apparatus from Cobleskill, Howe Cave and Schoharie responded. Mrs. Teale was about 35 years of age. The children who died in the flames were: Charles, 11; David, 7; Ernest, 4; Sidney, 3; Elizabeth, 2, and a two months old baby.

Teale is 43 years old. In running down the stairs in his home to summon help, he fell and broke both arms. He also was badly burned and suffered from inhaling smoke.

It was some time before fire apparatus from nearby villages arrived. The only telephone in the village, that is in use at night, is in the home of Dr. H. R. Bentley. When Dr. Bentley learned of the fire he called the telephone operator at Howe Cave who in turn notified the surrounding villages.

The mother would have escaped, neighbors said today, but she remained in the burning building and bravely died with her children. Teale said when he rushed from the house to summon help, he believed his wife would follow with the children. The bodies were burned beyond recognition.

Report Salaries $1,500 or $3,500

Salary for Single Person Under $1,500 and Married Under $3,500 Need Not Be Reported for Income Tax Purposes For Year 1925.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Uncle Sam announced today he would no longer pry into the incomes of the "little fellows."

Anticipating passage by Congress of the new revenue law, which eliminates all taxes on incomes below $1,500 for single and $3,500 for married persons, the treasury issued regulations that employers henceforth need not report salaries below those figures.

The order will cut 4,000,000 people from the surveillance of the internal revenue bureau, it is estimated, and leave only 8,000,000 on whom the treasury has a salary check.

Those whose employers do not know they are married had better report that fact at once, the treasury advised, because the boss must report all salaries over $1,500 if he does not know the "marital status of the payee."

Among the checks still retained by the treasury, however, are those requiring real estate agents to report payments to landlords, and banks to report interest payments if the amount exceeded the minimum income figures.

The regulations were forwarded today to all collectors throughout the country.

President III Of Heavy Cold

Washington, Feb. 17.—President Coolidge is suffering from a heavy cold.

While his indisposition is not considered serious, it was said to be sufficiently aggravating for him to cancel all engagements and remain in the White House proper today.

The president was at his desk on Tuesday evening this morning to discuss a few pressing matters. Then he retired to his mansion.

Disagree Only On Water Power

Republican Legislative Leaders and Governor Smith Not Far Apart on Other Pending Matters, and Water Power Dispute Concerns Only State Development.

Albany, Feb. 17.—With the exception of water power, the Republican leaders of the legislature are inclined to compromise with Governor Al Smith on most of the important measures before the 1926 session of the legislature.

The governor and the G. O. P. chieftains, however, are as far apart as ever this year on waterpower, and there was every indication at the Capitol today they would continue to remain in that position for some time to come.

Governor Smith favors state development of the vast waterpower resources, while the Republicans believe this should be done by private corporations. Both, however, insist on state control and state ownership.

Already the governor has sent a special message to the lawmakers urging abolition of the present waterpower commission and the creation of a state power authority with power to develop the state's waterpower resources. Another special message on waterpower probably will be sent to the lawmakers next week.

The governor and the Republicans both favor tax reduction. Indications are that there will be another 25 per cent reduction in the income tax this year, but this will make it impossible, according to the Republicans, to bring about a change in the direct state tax.

It is reported the Hughes committee will recommend a constitutional executive budget which will be acceptable to the governor. This would automatically do away with something over which the Republican leaders and the governor have been battling for years.

So far as the four year term for governor is concerned, which is one of Governor Smith's pet projects, the Republicans would give in as far as having the election take place on presidential years. The governor believes, however, that the election should be held on the odd numbered years.

Just what will happen to the 48 hour bill for women and children in industry is problematical. The governor has urged this legislation for years and last year such a bill was killed in the assembly after it had been passed by the senate. It was reported today that opponents of the bill, fearing it may be passed this year, have urged that a legislative investigation of the proposal be made before final action is taken.

B. M. Charchian To Make Response

Will Tell Why He Became an American Citizen at American Legion Reception to Foreign Born Citizens at High School.

In the last two years 166 foreign citizens were admitted to American citizenship in Ulster county. It is in special honor of these naturalized citizens that the American Legion on behalf of the city of Kingston, will hold a reception in the Kingston high school auditorium on the night of Washington's Birthday, Monday, February 22, at 8 o'clock.

Mayor Morris Block will make an address of welcome to these citizens, and a response in their behalf will be made by B. M. Charchian, the well known shirt manufacturer of this city. Mr. Charchian, who has been a naturalized American citizen for over 20 years, is a typical example of the best that can be made with American citizenship. He has not only built up a highly successful business but his efforts for civic betterment and community improvement and his fine personal attributes have made him a citizen of substance and prominence.

Mr. Charchian, in a position to the Mayor's welcome, will tell why he became an American citizen, how it felt to become one, and what he thinks of the United States and American citizenship.

John H. Hoadley, Edwin Gollup, John Pudek and John Rice, and First Class Scout Richard K. Hatley, representing the Boy Scouts, will play an important and significant part in the ceremonies. Everyone is invited to come and see what they will do.

Commissioner General of Immigration, Harry E. Hull of Washington, D. C., in charge of all immigration commissioners in the United States, will make the principal address. He will deliver a very important address on "Immigration, Naturalization and Americanization."

The high school orchestra of 33 pieces, C. H. Wadsworth, conductor, will furnish music, and an unusual patriotic program will be given.

The entire public is invited. Admission is free. Every patriotic citizen, native or naturalized, interested in this movement, should attend this meeting. If you know any foreign citizens who should become naturalized, bring them along. This meeting will make them want to become an American.

Federation Expects Tomorrow. Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock there will be the February meeting of the executive committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs held at the Kingston City Library.

Ex-State Trooper Released on Bail

J. H. Cannon, Held on Assault Charge in Warren County, Released From Jail on Bail Furnished by Two Rosendale Residents.

Entire Crew of Tugboat Saved

Tugboat New York Marine No. 6 Sunk in Collision with Steamer New Hampshire—Four Picked Up by Towboats.

New York, Feb. 17.—The entire crew of the tugboat No. 6 of the New York Marine Company, which was rammed and sunk in the lower East river today by the passenger steamer New Hampshire, was rescued by harbor craft.

Four members of the tug's crew were clinging to ice floes when picked up by towboats. Others seized life belts thrown from the New Hampshire.

The New Hampshire was on her way from New England to her North river pier when, within the shadow of Brooklyn Bridge, she collided with the tug.

Harbor police were querying river craft to determine whether the missing sailors were picked up by passing vessels or drowned when the tug sank.

A number of tug and other harbor craft sped to the rescue as the tugboat capsize. Watchers on shore saw the rescue craft pull a number of struggling men from the water. The rammed vessel was known officially as the tugboat New York Marine No. 6.

Flyers Resign to Lead Polar Flight

Washington, Feb. 17.—Announcement that Lieutenants Leigh Wade and H. H. Ogden, two of the round the world flyers, will leave the army air service to lead a new polar flight, caused little surprise here today.

The resignations of both men will be accepted it was said.

The new polar expedition being organized by the flyers will be known as the American University Almont Expedition, according to the announcement and will be backed financially by wealthy alumni from a number of colleges and universities.

The resignations of Wade and Ogden will leave only three of the round the world flyers still in the service.

Beale Describes His Ghastly Act Of Robbing Grave

Terrible Moment Says Alleged Ghost When Bobcats Appeared on Scene When He Was Removing a Body From Potter's Field.

Binghamton, N. Y., Feb. 17.—Frederick G. Beale, held as a ghoul who stole a body and substituted it for his own to make it appear that he had died and been burned in a motor accident, today told the International News Service through Captain Daniel E. Fox of the state police dramatic details how he robbed a grave.

"I planned the thing carefully," Beale said. "First I bought a pair of cheap gloves in Nicholas near Hancock and a pick. Then I drove to Hancock and had supper in a restaurant. After supper I started for a cemetery but the watchman stopped me because the road was bad. I had to turn back and go to another cemetery. There I picked a grave in the Potter's Field. I thought the work wouldn't be so apt to be discovered there. I backed the car into the cemetery and got busy. With the pick I cut the sod and took it out carefully so I wouldn't break it then scooped up the dirt until I uncovered the top of the casket. As soon as I could I uncrowed the lid and lifted off the cover. The smell of the flesh drew two bobcats and they watched me like wild things. I had to stop the work and stone them to keep them away and to stop their hideous shrieks. It was a terrible moment."

"Finally I reached in and drew out one of the hands from the casket to see whether it would hold fast to the body. I guess I will never forget the feeling of that cold, gruesome hand. It held and then I tugged out the whole body. When I began filling in the grave I found I was short of dirt and I knew I did a bad job but I was almost frantic and had to leave it as it was. Then I put the body into the car and saturated it with gasoline. I wanted it to burn, you know. It wasn't far from the cemetery to the embankment I meant to send the car over and when I got near it I threw the car into high, got out on the running board and sent it crashing down 25 feet. As soon as I saw it began to burn I went away and later that night I got a train for New York, paying the fare to the conductor."

"Upon reaching New York," Beale said, he changed trains and went to Washington and from there to Boston where he first learned of his funeral being held up by the sheriff. Beale said he decided that he must take care of his wife and children first of all and visited the office of an attorney after placing his hundred dollars of his money in three envelopes, two hundred dollars in each envelope. He said that he made arrangements with the attorney in that city to mail the envelopes to his wife, one each month, and figured he would be able to get a job and send his family more money after the last envelope had been sent.

Then he went to Florida where he was captured last week. He will be arraigned for grave robbery at Delhi next week.

YOUNG MARSHALL ON ROAD TO RECOVERY

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 17.—Clinging to a slender thread of life, Rody D. Marshall, Jr., 16 year old son of one of Pittsburgh's foremost criminal lawyers, today was believed by physicians to be on the road to recovery after treading continually on the threshold of death since his neck was broken last summer, while diving.

For months he could not use his fingers, causing physicians to fear the spinal cord had been severed at the point of fracture. Within the last few days his condition has shown marked improvement and both his family and physicians hope for ultimate recovery.

Medical men throughout the country interested themselves in the boy's case, because of the fight he waged against seemingly hopeless odds.

SPARRING PARTNER FOR DENISEY SMOOTS HIMSELF

Richmond, Va., Feb. 17.—Ralph Brooks of Wichita, Kansas, a sparring partner for Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, shot himself in the head in a hotel room here today. Physicians said he has little chance for recovery.

He was found by Joe Laviano and Farmer Lodge, also Dempsey's sparring partner on his present exhibition tour. Lodge declared Brooks complained of being "disappointed in a love affair."

Dempsey is to arrive tomorrow for an exhibition bout Saturday.

DEER WOUNDED BY DOGS KILLED BY PROTECTOR

On Tuesday of this week, Game Protector E. M. Castle found a deer which had been seriously wounded by dogs and it was necessary to kill it to put it out of its misery.

The game protectors of this section have been instructed to put in all of the deer found running along the edge of farms who stray into the game park or into traps set by deer owners.

SUCCESS WITH DELINQUENT CHILDREN SHOWN IN REPORT

Agencies Co-operating in "Child Guide-ance Clinics" Under Commonwealth Fund See Improvement.

New York.—[an our public schools
prevent delinquency and crime by giving early and painstaking special attention to pupils who are backward
or out of focus, or whose behaviors makes them constant puzzles or to teachers and parents? Last though all such "problem children"
are not necessarily headed for jail,
will timely study of their difficulties
make them happier and more effective citizens of the school and eventually of their community?

Affirmative evidence in this respect
and a story of progress in establishing "child guidance clinics" and visiting teacher service to help such children are found in a report just issued by the joint committee on methods of preventing delinquency which summarizes four years of work under a program initiated and financed by the Commonwealth fund, one of the larger
American philanthropic foundations.

In organizing this program for the prevention of juvenile delinquency the Commonwealth fund, after a careful survey of present needs in the field
of child welfare, approved a scheme
of cooperative activities to be carried on by the national committee for mental hygiene, the national committee on visiting teachers (affiliated with the Public Association of New York city) and the New York School of Social Work. By conducting local demonstrations, issuing publications
and offering scholarships, it was proposed to develop scientific study of difficult and delinquent children in the schools and juvenile courts, to foster sound methods of treatment based on such study and to increase the number of trained and competent workers
in this field.

Under the direction of the national committee for mental hygiene, says
the report, demonstration child guide-ance clinics are now being conducted in Philadelphia and Cleveland. Similar demonstrations have been carried on for periods varying from six months to a year in five other cities.

As a result of this work child guide-ance clinics, fully supported by the local communities, are now in operation in St. Louis, Dallas, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Los Angeles, Memphis and Richmond. At these clinics children who are proving too much for the adults responsible for them are given systematic physical, psychological and psychiatric examination, and assisted by trained and sympathetic welfare workers to adjust themselves to happier and more normal ways of living.

Judge Urges Mother to Spank Girl, Sixteen

New York.—Magistrate Gresser in the Jamaica court urged Mrs. Margaret Ramsden to spank her daughter, Beatrice, sixteen, after the girl had been arraigned as a wayward minor.

Mrs. Ramsden, weeping, said she understood authorities would interfere if she undertook to chastise the girl. The court reassured her:
"There are too many people meddling in everybody else's affairs and not minding their own business. They said the same thing last year, when I said that I always knocked some sense
into my children's heads."

Magistrate Gresser insisted, "I tell you that, so long as she is under your roof, you have absolute authority to exercise such parental measures as

Fine Levied 18 Years Ago Threatens Man's Home

Des Moines, Iowa.—Facing deprivation of his home to satisfy the state's demands for payment of a fine imposed 18 years ago, Charles Eddy, seventy-year-old painter, of Belle-
Plaine, has appealed to Governor Hammill.

The property has been ordered sold to satisfy the judgment of the Benton county court, imposed September 25, 1907, for a state liquor law violation. Eddy pleaded guilty and was fined $300 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail.

He served the jail sentence, but was unable to pay the fine. The state for 18 years left Eddy unmolested. While the fine was growing to $725 through increase of interest, he saved his money
and bought a home.

Eddy's attempt to obtain a loan on his property brought to light the old judgment against him.

Physical Defects in Students on Decline

Jackson, Miss.—A vast decrease in physical defects of college students has been noted in examinations over the last decade at Mississippi A. & M.
college. Dr. C. R. Mitchell, college physician, attributes the improvement to educational work in public health programs.

In a letter to Dr. F. J. Underwood,
state health officer, he called attention to the improvement in teeth and corrected eye defects.

"I find practically all teeth in good condition, whereas nine years ago I would find a set of sound teeth.
There are 25 freshmen with properly filled cavities. Nine years ago I found only six with cavities."

Bobs Her Hair, Hubby in Rage Finishes Job

Boston.—Because she bobbed
her hair, Everett H. Humphreys
of Arlington flew into a rage,
seized his wife, Marion M., by
what remained of her tresses,
dragged her into a bedroom and completed the job—shearing off
what hair the barber had left.

This was the testimony of Mrs. Humphreys, seventeen-year-old blond, given in Middlesex Probate court, where she was awarded a decree nisi of divorce on grounds of cruelty.
She was also given the right
to resume her maiden name, Wyatt.

SPENDS FORTUNE, DIES PENNILESS

Man Who Broke Monte Carlo Bank Passes Away.

London.—Arthur De Courcy Bower,
who ran through several fortunes, including one made from Chilean nitrate concessions and another through
"breaking the bank at Monte Carlo,"
was found dead a few days ago in a furnished room in London.

Bower spent his money as freely as he made it. He was twice married,
his second wife being a widow, a Mrs.
Smith, to whom Prince Bathurst, Hungarian sportsman, left nearly $500,000.

Bower, who was sixty-nine years old, died almost penniless. Born of a good family and educated at Eton,
he spent some years as partner in a London financial firm. Wanderski seized him and he went to South America.

He made a fortune in nitrate working with Colonel North, the "Nitrate King." Then he returned to England and began spending his money lavishly, often giving barmaids $500 tips.

His most remarkable exploits were in the gambling casino at Monte Carlo. He had perfected a system of play while in South America and this he resolved to try at the famous casino in Monaco.

He took $135,000 with him for the purpose and the first afternoon won $50,000. Then he hired five assistants, giving each $20,000, with instructions
as to the play. He broke the bank
three times, winning $1,215,000.

Aged Romeo, Dead but Wiser, Is Rid of Wife

Los Angeles, Cal.—John Varner,
deaf and eighty-four years of age,
shuffled out of Judge F. C. Valentine's court poorer, wiser and through with love and romance.

Mrs. Emma Varner, not quite so old, but equally deaf, left the court too, with a profit of approximately $2,800 to show for her year of marriage with Varner, according to the testimony he had given. Judge Valentine had just granted Varner a decree of annulment.

It was just a little more than a year ago that the two, after a brief
acquaintance, eloped to Santa Ana and were married. Varner had a note, a trust deed and $3,250 in cash at that time, he said. Within a few weeks he had conveyed to his bride
an interest in the trust deed and the note and had placed his cash in a joint account.

"I put the money in a joint account.
She pressed my hand and said neither of us would write a check without notifying the other. Then I found out she had drawn out all but $446,"
he related bitterly.

Wanderer Is Freed of 20-Year Murder Charge

Springfield, Mo.—Jim Soblett is a free man today after 20 weary years of wandering about the country with a murder charge hanging over his head.

Soblett killed Joe Dillard, an old friend, with a bullet intended for another during an argument in 1905. He immediately left the country, and although a nation-wide search was instituted, he was never apprehended.
The agency suffered by Soblett over the killing of his friend and the terror
of constant flight led him to surrender several weeks ago. He was placed in jail at Galena, Mo.

The story told by the prisoner won him many friends. Relatives, including the wife and daughter of the slain man, visited Soblett in his cell, and all kindness was shown him. Public sympathy grew rapidly during his incarceration, and at last Judge Shaw
and Prosecuting Attorney Hicks, meeting with relatives and other citizens, agreed to waive the charges and Soblett was released, once more a free man. He returned to his home at Thorn, Ark.

Charges Klan Is Back of Boyle

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 17.—Assemblyman Boyle, Republican of Suffolk, and Assemblyman Cuvillier, Democrat of New York, engaged in a heated debate on the assembly floor today over several measures sponsored by Boyle.

The argument waxed so intense that finally Cuvillier charged "Assemblyman Boyle is a member of an un-American society known as the Ku Klux Klan, and I am beginning to think that organization is back of some of his legislation."

"I do not consider you responsible for some of the things you say," Assemblyman Boyle retorted.

One of Boyle's bills to which Cuvillier objected would permit the Suffolk county board of supervisors to appoint as many special constables as desired for 90 days each year. Boyle said this was necessary to properly supervise the roads because of heavy automobile traffic in the summer months.

"Is this to establish a few more speed traps for motorists on Long Island?" asked Assemblyman Kennedy, Democrat of Queens. "If you are one who cannot observe the law, then step into these speed traps," Boyle replied.

The bill was advanced to the order of final passage.

Seek Sweetheart Of Slain Man

Chicago, Feb. 17.—Beatrice Gold, sweetheart of Grazio Tropea, slain gangster, today was being sought by police in hopes she might throw some light upon his murder.

Miss Gold is said to have returned hurriedly to Chicago from South Haven, Michigan, where she was paying a short visit to relatives at 223 Perry street, after receiving a letter from Tropea telling her he was compelled to leave the city. Before she came here, however, Tropea had been shot down on the street.

Tropea, police say, has a wife, Helen, and son living at 582 North Division street, Buffalo, N. Y., and other wife in Italy. Motive for the slaying is believed to be back of the collection of defense funds for two gangsters now on trial for the slaying of two policemen. Police say Tropea kept most of the fund.

Trooper Killed At Roadhouse

Waterson, N. J., Feb. 17.—A free fall fight early today at French roadhouse near here, resulted in the death of Charles Ellrich, a trooper, and severe injuries to another trooper and the alleged proprietor of the inn.

Musiel Alessi, said to be owner of place, is dying from a bullet wound. Trooper Matthew McManus in a hospital with head contusions suffered when he was blacked.

The origin of the fracas was a quarrel as the two injured men were unable to talk.

Two men and two women, said to be in the hotel at the time of the shooting, were held for questioning.

Mayor Hackett Badly Injured

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 17.—Mayor William S. Hackett, who was badly injured in an auto accident in Havana, Cuba, last night, recovered consciousness today and was believed out of danger, according to reports received here by friends of the mayor.

The mayor was thrown from an automobile in the suburbs of Havana and at first was believed to have a fracture of the skull.

Explosion Kills Seven Miners

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 17.—Seven miners died as the result of the explosion of a "solid" shot in the New York Coal Company mine near Three Men were killed outright and four would-be rescuers were gassed when they entered the mine and six others still are suffering from the effects of the fumes.

Coons On Honor Roll

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 17.—According to an announcement made today by President James L. Coatsworth, Paul W. Coons of 43 West 122nd street, Kingston, a freshman at Cornell University, has been placed on the honor roll of the university for exceptional scholarship.

A class of 260 only twenty-two freshmen were honored by placing on the honor roll. Mr. Coons is a member of Chi Psi fraternity.

POULTRY

GREEN FEED IS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE

Green feed is fully as important as either scratch grain or dry mash, and comparatively few farmers feed green food as it should be fed. A truly successful poultryman regards green feed as important as mash, scratch grain or water, and sees to it that his birds are supplied daily with green feed in some succulent form. Sprouted oats are most desirable where it is convenient to sprout them. The oats should be soaked in warm water for 24 hours, then spread in shallow trays, boxes, or pans, and kept at a temperature of from 60 to 80 degrees until the stem sprout of the oat is between one-half and three-quarters of an inch in length. At that stage, the oats carry the greatest amount of food value and succulence. It should be remembered that the green feed is fed for succulence and not necessarily for green color.

If it is not convenient to sprout oats, any root crop may be substituted. Mangels, sugar beets, or raw potatoes, carrots, turnips, beets, any good root crop, fed raw, is satisfactory green feed. When cooked, however, they are still good feed, but have lost their value as green feeds. In feeding root crops, the roots should be chopped and fed in troughs or hoppers so that all the birds have access to them, says a writer in the Michigan Farmer. Where root crops are not obtainable, squash or pumpkin chopped, or apples, may prove satisfactory. Alfalfa that has been steamed or soaked, is better than nothing, but, at best, a rather poor substitute for a good succulent green feed. The birds should be fed at least once per day all of the green feed, in some form or other, that they will clean up.

Mark the Nonlayers to Avoid Use as Breeders

It is very important for the proper development of the pullets that they be separated from the old birds. Particularly is this true for late hatched and immature pullets.

Remember that much mash is needed for production, but that ample grain must be fed to give the birds protection from the cold.

Some form of artificial lighting to offset the short days pays well when used on these pullets. A gasoline lantern may be used if electric lights are not available. The evening lunch method is the simplest where the lantern is used. Feed the birds grain as usual before they go to roost. Light the lanterns at eight o'clock and feed more grain, all they will clean up again. Turn the lights off at nine o'clock.

Late pullets which are not grown by December might as well be used for food and feed saved on them. Fully grown pullets which are not laying should molt late next year and be used for breeders if they are not marked.

If the pullets are not laying 40 per cent or better now, there is something wrong. See that there is a good mash, well protected house and plenty of green feed.—O. O. Krum, Poultry Extension Specialist Colorado Agricultural College.

Entertain All Visitors Outside Poultry House

"Entertain your visitors outside of the poultry house," is the word sent to farmers by the Ohio State university.

Chickenpox and other poultry diseases are often spread by people traveling from farm to farm, the university poultrymen explain. And with eggs at present prices, they add, it is wise to avoid all chance of letting disease get a start in the flock.

"Chickenpox, roup and caker are appearing all over the state," the letter to poultrymen continues. "We know very little about the control of these troubles once a flock is infected, but must rely on preventive measures."

Among the preventive measures the poultry specialists list these:

Sick birds should be marked and excluded from the breeding pen. Pullet should be culled throughout the growing season and the weaker birds removed. Poultry houses must provide ventilation in hot weather and protection from draft and dampness in cold weather.

Feed a complete ration, including minerals and vitamins and plenty of green feed. Handle a few birds every night to see whether they are in good condition. Remove birds from the flock when they show the first symptoms of sickness, for one sick bird may contaminate the whole flock.

Health of Fowls

The best way to keep in touch with the health of the birds and to detect disease disorders, etc., at the earliest possible moment, is to make a practice of inspecting the droppings boards every morning. Simple looseness of the bowels, indigestion due to too rich a ration, liver troubles, excess animal food, etc., can all be detected by the condition of the droppings, and the general tendency to intestinal disorders thus shown should receive immediate attention.

THE TURKISTAN ZOO.

The peculiar walking motion of this creature, resembling that of a measuring worm, saved the construction of the trans-Siberian railroad from utter failure when the cold weather froze the Russian's yardsticks so hard that they could not measure up the curved sections of the track. A pair of zoops were brought up from the zoo at Bokhara, and were soon trained so that they could step off seventy-two inches with great exactitude. Travelers complain of the roadbed being bumpy in places, but the zoops were unable to think of linear distance and vertical elevations at the same time.

The world's O. K. when you smoke P. A.

LOOK for the silver lining in every P. A. smoke-cloud. Notice how the little old world takes on a rosier tint when you pick P. A. for a pal. For a fact, Men, Prince Albert holds options on jimmy-pipe joy in every land. It's got a half-million on pipe-pleasure, and no mistake.

There's no deep, dark secret about the why of all this . . . P. A. is great tobacco. Time-tested. Tongue-tested. Mild as a May morning, cool as a breeze off the water, P. A. can't tamper with your tongue or poster your palate. (The Prince Albert process cuts out bite and parch.)

When that cool, fragrant smoke pur-colates up the pipe-stem, troubles take to the tall timber. Pipe-pervers vanish in a P. A. smoke-scream. You're sitting on top of the world . . . and the view is simply grand. Just never was a tobacco like good old P. A.

Many a man who thought he never could smoke a pipe is now a loyal P. A. fan. You see, the tobacco makes all the difference in the world. Right now, head for the nearest shop where they hand out P. A. sunshine in tidy red tins. Get next to some really friendly tobacco.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, round and half-round tin tins, and round round glass tins, and with every tin of P. A. and pack is enclosed by the Prince Albert process.

Employed Boys Game League

The Employed Boys Game League, which has been running as a part of the regular class activities since last November finished its schedule last Monday evening.

The boys in this league competed and were scored in an athletic event and played in either a game of cage ball or basketball daily. The scores made each day were added to determine the places of the different teams.

Medals and other prizes will be awarded to the first three places in the league.

Of the four teams competing, the race for first place was fairly even between Captain Kennedy's Navy team and Captain Fox's Yale team until about the first of January when the Navy team took the lead and kept it until the end of the season, finishing 3,300 points ahead of second place.

A contest for third place developed between the Cornell and Army team during the last two weeks. Daily only one to ten points would separate the two teams and up until the last day when Cornell nosed out neither was sure who would win.

Standing of Teams.

| Team | Points |
|----------------------------------|--------|
| Navy, (Capt. Kennedy) | 17,400 |
| Yale, (Capt. Fox) | 14,728 |
| Cornell, (Capt. Smith) | 12,945 |
| Army, (Capt. Deltz) | 12,780 |

Men on the winning team:

Navy—K. Kennedy, (Capt.); A. Adams, Charles Contant, L. Hyatt, J. Quest, F. Tierney, H. Herd, P. Coons, F. Fitzsimmons.
Yale—C. Fox, (Capt.); Joe Bias, William Mohr, J. Leonard, S. Goldfarb, B. Orkoff, K. Perie, H. Jensen.
Cornell—H. Smith, (Capt.); H. Fitzgerald, H. Kantrowitz, E. Smith, J. Quest, K. Lord, H. Houghtaling, H. Perlman.

LIPTON'S CUP TRY WAS BOY'S DREAM

Irish Yachtsman Tells of Vain Efforts to Win.

Sir Thomas Lipton, the Irish yachtsman who tried four times unsuccessfully to capture the America's cup for the Royal Ulster Yacht club of Belfast, has contributed an interesting article to the Irish Sketch, in which Sir Thomas tells of his vain efforts to win the cup. As his conversation usually is, Sir Thomas' article includes amusing anecdotes, one of which refers to his start in business in Glasgow, when he opened a shop, his staff "consisting of a small boy and a black cat."

"The boy was not long with me," writes Sir Thomas, "because, seeing he was rather shabbily dressed, I gave him a sovereign to buy a new suit with the result that he did not come back. In meeting his mother a few days later and asking what had become of her boy, she replied: 'Well, Mr. Lipton, he looked so nice in his new suit that he has got a better job.'"

After leaving their native county of Monaghan in Ireland the future baronet's parents settled on the banks of the Clyde, near Glasgow, and it was there he learned to sail as he grew up and heard much about the racing for the America's cup among the Clyde yachtsmen. It was at this time that his great ambition as far as yachting was concerned had its inception.

"Some day I thought I might have a shot at the trophy," he writes, "and I thought what a fine thing it would be to get a boat designed and built in Ireland and named Shamrock to try for the old mug." This ambition was to be fulfilled, but not until many years after the boy on the banks of the Clyde dreamed of its fulfillment.

Sir Thomas, when the time came, found that he could not have his challenger built in Ireland, and five of Fairlie built the first Shamrock, which raced and was defeated here in 1899. Sir Thomas tried again in 1901, 1908, and then, after a lapse of ten years, "to let somebody else try," challenged in 1914, only to have the race stopped by a World war, which prevented the series being sailed until six years later, when the Shamrock IV was beaten by Resolute.

Although beaten so many times, Sir

Three Pitchers Expected to Help Their Teams in 1926

Three pitchers in the National league, Sherdel of St. Louis, Bob Smith of Boston and Wayland Dean of Philadelphia, shown in the photograph, left to right, are expected to have much to do with tightening the race this coming season. All three are mighty clever twirlers.

Thomas declares, in closing his article in the Sketch, that there are no better sportsmen in the world than American yachtsmen, and that he was always fairly and squarely beaten. "I have no sort of excuse or explanation to make for the defeats. I was always treated by the American yachtsmen with the greatest kindness and fairness."

THREE CLINTON TEAMS IN ACTION TONIGHT.

Three rip-roaring contests are scheduled to take place this evening on the Epworth Hall court when the three Clinton Avenue brother aggregations, the Independents, Seniors and Juniors each clash with rival quintets. The first match will be between the Clinton Juniors and the Presbyterian youngsters. In order to give Epworth Hall fans three fast contests this first match will be called at 7 o'clock sharp. The second match will bring the Clinton Seniors and the Congregational quintet together, the Seniors having defeated the Poughkeepsie lads last Monday night by but a lone point. The final match will be between the Clinton Independents and Fleischmanns High School. This will make the second match of a series between these teams, the mountaineers having captured the first match a week ago.

LAKE KATRINE.

Lake Katrine, Feb. 17.—The Home Department will meet with Mrs. Graham Parish on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. This will be a sewing meeting.

Prayer meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Roosa Wednesday evening at 7:30. Mrs. Ferguson's Sunday school class of girls, the Misses Susan and Frances Weinman, Hellene Corra, Verona Shook, Marietta Riley, June and Natalie Hookey and Margaret Lachman, made an average of 81% in attendance, the highest for the month of January.

Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Sahler, Mrs. Everett, Miss A. Snyder, Mrs. J. Brink, Miss Ida Brink, Mrs. F. Burger, Mrs. J. Cook, Miss Hornbeck and Mrs. Ferguson attended the missionary

meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Davis, Flatbush, Friday afternoon and listened to a very entertaining and inspiring address on the Japanese people by Mrs. L. Shafter, who has spent 13 years in Japan.

The nurses and doctors from the Kingston City Hospital and their friends enjoyed a sleighride and supper at the Grange Hall last Tuesday night.

The neighborhood extends congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Horton Plarson, who was married on Thursday last.

Plans are being promoted to reorganize the Christian Endeavor society, which disbanded a few years ago.

The TALE of KIDDIE KATYDID

By Arthur Scott Bailey

SOLOMON OWL'S CRY

MR. NIGHTHAWK was nodding about on a branch of a maple tree. What Kiddie Katydid had said to him about Solomon Owl frightened him. And he almost wished he hadn't come to Farmer Green's dooryard that night.

But the more he thought about the matter, the less he was inclined to believe that there was really any danger. And soon he peered at Kiddie Katydid through the darkness and said:

"You almost fooled me. But I know now what you are trying to do. You were trying to scare me away from here."

"Katy did, Katy did; she did, she did."

"You needn't say that," Mr. Nighthawk exclaimed. "Katy has nothing to do with this."

"Whoo-Whoo-Whoo!"—It Was Solomon Owl's Weird Call.

to do with my case. She hasn't even mentioned Solomon Owl's name."

"You don't understand," Kiddie told him. "I'm speaking of an entirely different matter."

And then Mr. Nighthawk had another idea. He chased the frown away from his face and smiled very pleasantly.

"I'm sorry that you don't feel like jumping for me," he observed. "But I'd be just as glad to see you fly! I remember being told that you fly almost as well as you jump."

"Oh, I can't begin to fly as well as you can," Kiddie Katydid told Mr. Nighthawk. "I only wish I knew how to coast down out of the sky the way you do, without being dashed upon the ground. How do you manage to stop so suddenly?"

"Pooh! That's nothing," Mr. Nighthawk said. "It's easy, once you know how."

In spite of his way of belittling his flying feat, Mr. Nighthawk was secretly very proud of his skill at sky coasting. And when Kiddie Katydid asked him if he wouldn't kindly give an exhibition of the art of fancy flying, Mr. Nighthawk couldn't help feeling pleased.

He wanted to display his skill. But there was just one thing that troubled him. He was afraid that if he climbed up into the sky, before he dropped down again Kiddie Katydid would have vanished. And that didn't suit Mr. Nighthawk's plans.

"Will you promise to stay right where you are until I come back?" he asked.

Now, Kiddie Katydid had intended to hide himself as soon as Mr. Nighthawk should leave him. But there was nothing he could do now except to agree to Mr. Nighthawk's proposal.

"I'll promise," said Kiddie. "If you'll promise me that you'll surely return. Otherwise I might have to stay here for a month, perhaps, waiting for you."

"Oh! I'll come back in a minute or two," Mr. Nighthawk laughed. "Don't look hungry at Kiddie. 'Don't you worry about my not coming back to talk with you!'"

Then he began climbing upward into the sky. And he had gone about as high as he wished to, when all at once a rolling "Whoo-Whoo-Whoo," "Whoo-Whoo," "Whoo-Whoo" started him. It was Solomon Owl's weird call. And it drove every thought except one out of Mr. Nighthawk's head.

One idea—to escape—filled his mind completely. And he turned and hurried away from Farmer Green's place as fast as he could go; for Mr. Nighthawk feared that Solomon Owl would arrive there at any moment.

As for Kiddie Katydid, when he heard Solomon's cry he knew at once that he was rid of Mr. Nighthawk. And Kiddie's "Katy did, Katy did; she did, she did," rang out again and again in the night. All his friends and confidants crept out of their hiding-places and joined in the chorus. And everybody enjoyed a good laugh over Mr. Nighthawk's visit—and his sudden departure.

Perhaps Kiddie may be forgiven for boasting the least bit, as his companions crowded around him.

"I knew better than to jump for Mr. Nighthawk!" he cried. "I happened to know that he always wants to catch his food on the wing. And if I had jumped, or tried to fly away, he would have snatched me right out of the air as quick as lightning." (Copyright by Grosset & Dunlap)

Mrs. Rhinelander Still Loves Kip

Says a Half Hour With Him Would Mind Kip to Her For Life—Chas. Reardon of 'Millions'—Reveals $2000 Monthly.

Copyright, 1936 by International News Service and the New York Evening Journal.

New York, Feb. 17.—"If Leonard Kip Rhinelander was with me for only one half hour we would remain together for the rest of our lives."

Mrs. Alice Beatrice Jones Rhinelander straightened a lamp shade in the new spick and span two story frame cottage of the Jones family, in Shore road on the edge of New Rochelle.

This dwelling is a short, space from the old alleyway structure where Leonard Kip Rhinelander, wealthy aristocrat, paid court to the dusky girl of his heart. It was in the former home that George Jones, colored cab driver, used to sacrifice his own bed to supply a place to sleep to the youth who subsequently became his son-in-law.

Alice Beatrice said today she had been happy getting things in order in the cottage. She wore, in addition to a henna dress and collegiate sweater, a smile that betokened more than passing contentment.

Although she insisted that her husband who unsuccessfully sought in a sensational legal battle to set her aside as his wife was not there and that she did not know where he was, it seemed patent that the bright cottage was being made cozy again the day when he would return to her.

Reporters who became well acquainted with Kip and his bride from the time of the trial of his annulment suit have been of the firm opinion that the husband never ceased to love his wife. Mrs. Rhinelander confirmed this conviction today thus: "I love him dearly. Our marriage was one out of a thousand. It was a real romance and we were happy. If he had only left as alone. I have not written to Kip lately. I don't know where he is."

"You haven't had a reconciliation?" inquired the reporter.

"You see I am alone," responded the young woman.

She reverted to her remark that half an hour with her husband would bind him to her for life.

"Mrs. Stillman was at the Hotel Plaza making everyone believe she was preparing to sue her husband for divorce. But she saw Mr. Stillman for a short time, and in that brief period became reconciled to him. That could happen to us, too," she said.

"Why shouldn't Kip and I be happy together? We were happy until they dragged him away."

"It is nonsense to say I pursued. I did what any other girl would do—married the man I loved. His family have been reported as saying that I was not of good influence. That is silly. Why, even in the matter of his stuttering, he grew more composed when he was with me."

Mrs. Rhinelander is receiving regularly each month a check for $300 for her maintenance from Rhinelander. Her attorney, Judge Samuel P. Swinburne, said nothing further in legal proceedings would take place until the return from Florida of Judge Mills, Rhinelander's attorney, on February 20.

Wives of Coal Miners in Lead

Statistics Disclosing American Birth Rate According to Occupation of the Father Show Miners' Wife Lead Drive Against Race Suicide.

Washington, Feb. 17.—A set of remarkable statistics disclosing the American birth rate according to the occupation of the father were issued today by the department of commerce.

The survey covered 25 selected states. It pertained exclusively to women between the ages of 15 and 44 years of age who gave birth to children during 1934, who previously had been mothers and whose husbands were engaged in gainful occupations.

Dr. Stark, in 1934, visited 279,945 homes of persons of this class. Wives of coal miners leading the campaign against race suicide in America. Mothers of this group, within the 15-39 age limitation, have families averaging 7.4 children each, including the new arrivals of 1934.

Homes headed by chemists, engineers, metallurgists, dentists, physicians, surgeons and technical engineers, had the smallest families in the 15-39 class with an average of 3.3 children.

For women from 40 to 44 years of age the highest average number of children ever born was 9.1 to wives of miners and the lowest average, 4, for the wives of lawyers, judges and justices.

The statistics are regarded as valuable inasmuch as they represent the principal population of country whose incomes as a rule permits a fairly satisfactory basis for rearing children.

Excluded from the census were the poverty stricken class, where the birth rate is often high, and homes which are childless.

The figures revealed there is a tendency to smaller families in all classes engaged in gainful occupations. There were noticeable in their following substantial exceptions, such as professional men and those in clerical employment.

On the other hand the families are becoming comparatively large among occupations chiefly represented by out door activities, such as mining, agriculture, building labor and others.

Census takers observed that there were 1,818 births in the homes of clergymen, where women were between 20 and 44 years old. These clergymen had an average of 3.6 children.

Helping South America's Poor

An American corporation—Cerro de Pasco—one of the largest copper producing concerns in the world, in an effort to help Peru better the living conditions of her poor, is importing fifteen pedigree Hereford and Angus bulls from Colorado. They are to be crossed with the range cattle here in the hope of stimulating milk production. The low production of wholesome milk in Peru and Chile is believed one reason for the high mortality among children. The Cerro de Pasco, along with other American corporations, is showing much humanitarian interest in the poor and ignorant native workers, who have been exploited from time immemorial and still are by most native companies.

Old Army General Orders

Copies of two general orders, one promoting U. S. Grant from brevet second lieutenant to second lieutenant, and assigning him to the Seventh Infantry, and the other announcing the death of John Quincy Adams, have been received by Col. Frank Morris, commander of the Seventh Infantry, U. S. A., at Vancouver barracks. The copies were sent by G. M. Kalsely, an army veteran, who saved the orders from destruction years ago at Fort Leavenworth. The order announcing the death of Adams was signed by President James K. Polk, and was received by the Seventh Infantry while on duty in Mexico in 1845. That promotional Grant was issued September 30, 1845.

Danes Colonize Greenland

Two colonies of Danish farmers have gone to Greenland to make an effort to engage in farming on a profitable basis. The colonies will be at Hadsund and at Storöy sound. Danish sovereignty has been recognized in Greenland by all powers but Norway, and last year Denmark and Norway made an agreement settling Norway's claim by giving it certain commercial rights for a period of 20 years. The agreement ended a controversy lasting for centuries that carried because Norway claimed original exploration in Greenland.

THE WHY of SUPERSTITIONS

By H. IRVING KING

ROWAN RUDDERS

IN SOME places along the Atlantic coast there is belief among sailors and fishermen that if the rudders of their boats are made of rowan wood—that is of the wood of the mountain ash—that the boats will be faster. The Newfoundland fishermen, according to the American Folk Lore Society, are especially given to this superstition which clearly originated in the dim regions of Norse mythology. Among the Northern nations the rowan was second in sacred and magical qualities only to the ash, the sacred ladrel from which the human race descended.

This alone would account for the desirability of having the rudder, the directing part of a boat, made of rowan wood. But the belief that a rowan rudder makes a boat go faster points to something more. The key to this something is apparently found in the ancestry of the word "row" which is derived from the Anglo-Saxon word "rowan" and the word "rowan," like its descendant "row" meant to drive, to push and, according to the dictionary "hence ultimately, a rudder." Thus a fortuitous combination of mythology and philology indicates the wood of the mountain ash as the proper material for a boat's rudder.

"What's in a Name?"

By MILDRED MARSHALL

Facts about your name; its history; meaning; whence it was derived; its influence; your lucky day, lucky hour

DIANA

ONE of the most beautiful names which comes to us through Roman mythology is Diana. She was originally Diviana, goddess of the night, but, as she was pure as Vesta, she was identified with the Greek Artemis and given possession of the temple of Ephesus and was thenceforth regarded as the goddess of the silver bow and daughter of Jupiter and Latona.

In the sixteenth century, when romances of chivalry began to make their appearance, Jorge de Montemayor, the Spanish poet, named his heroine Diana, and her name was quickly taken up by the sponsors of the lovely widow, Diane de Foitiers, whose colors of black and white Henry II of France wore even to his last fatal tournament. The Cavalier court during its residence in France adopted Diana and carried it back to England.

In some instances Diana is regarded as the name of the charitable lady referred to in the Scriptures as "Dinah of the Ephraimites." In the eighteenth century there was a Diana in Florence whose chief claim to fame was that she mistook a large stone that fell on her head off a building, for a small pebble, because she wore such an elaborate head-dress.

Crystals in Diana's talismanic gem. It guards her youth and purity, according to old superstition, and brings her many friends. Sunday is her lucky day and 7 her lucky number. (By Whittier Syndicate.)

MORE PARA SCIENCE FROM A MILK COOKING ADVOCATE

February 15, 1938.

Editor, Kingston Daily Freeman.

Dear Sir: Because your editorial on pasteurization is so perfectly lucid to the uninformed and still, so far from true, I would appreciate your publishing the following:

A low bacteria count indicates that the milk has been drawn from the cow's udder in a cleanly manner, has clean receptacles and immediately cooled to 44 degrees or lower and held at a low temperature until tested for bacteria but this does not prove that the cow is free from tuberculosis nor that the man handling the milk are not typhoid spreaders or carriers of other disease germs.

It is perfectly possible to produce milk with a low bacteria count from a cow with tuberculosis. The bacteria are not killed by pasteurization. Pasteurization respects neither milk nor quantity. It kills them all. R. E. DU BOIS.

If pasteurization "kills them all" why does pasteurized milk contain a greater number of bacteria than raw milk, as shown by repeated monthly reports? Also, if bacteria acid bacteria are beneficial, which nobody will deny, why kill them by denaturing the milk by cooking? The fact that pasteurizing kills beneficial organisms in milk is one of the reasons against practicing it.

ST. JOSEPH'S HOLY NAME SMOKER BIG SUCCESS

St. Joseph's Holy Name Society held another successful smoker in the school hall Tuesday night. Five acts of superior vaudeville and four smashing boxing bouts constituted the program.

Fred Van Dusen, more mystifying than ever; Bob Kelly, a "Remember" and "My Wild Irish Rose"; Leo Smith, novelty dancer; Carpine and Settles, Charleston experts; and Tommy Dolan, the golden voiced tenor, entertained and made a decided hit that will be long remembered by the Holy Name men. With Ted's galaxy of boxing stars came Freddie, George Brown, Young Larie, Frenchy DeWitt, Thelma Hart, Tom Fay, Dan Martin, Ed Henkle and Young Fisher, all played their wares to the enjoyment of the vast crowd. Some last, lively boxing bouts were put on, all of which were drawn. After the smoker refreshments were served under the capable direction of Cater George Camp. The Rev. E. A. Duggan, St. Joseph's pastor, presided.

ward replied that he had received several complaints.

Alderman Moore of the Third ward said that as soon as he received any complaints he had then it up at once with the board of public works and they had gotten busy and opened the streets in his ward.

Alderman Clark of the Eighth ward said that had been his experience.

"What's the Use?" Asks O'Reilly.

"How about you, Alderman O'Reilly?" asked Alderman Everett, "did you take up any complaints with the board?"

"No, what's the use," retorted Alderman O'Reilly.

Alderman Fox of the Fifth ward said that but little work had been in that ward in opening the streets, and he believed that when the next storm broke the city authorities should arrange to operate day and night shifts in order to keep traffic moving.

Trolley Has Right Idea.

Alderman Everett said that the trolley company had the right idea, for as soon as it began to snow the plows were gotten out and kept running all the time and by doing that the trolley cars were able to operate.

"That's the idea," said Alderman O'Reilly, "you want to start at the snow as soon as it starts snowing and not wait until the most of it has fallen."

What Public Works Board Said.

Alderman Radcliff of the Seventh ward said that all the satisfaction he had gotten from the board of public works was the reply in answer to questions as to why certain streets in his ward were not opened: "that it will receive attention as soon as we can get to it, we have lots of complaints."

Alderman Radcliff, who is employed on a local boatyard, said his boss told him that the next time there was a snow storm he hoped the board of public works would not wait for two weeks before running the plow through President's Place.

Alderman Radcliff said that on German street the snow was piled many feet high and no attempt had been made to run a plow through the street although one family who lived in the center of the block had a baby.

County and Towns Praised.

Alderman Fox said that what was needed was heavier equipment. The county authorities had no trouble in keeping the roads open.

Alderman Everett said he had been informed that the town of Ulster had opened 120 miles of road in two days, by working day and night shifts.

Alderman Haines believed that the council should adopt a resolution asking the board to purchase suitable snow removal equipment.

After some further discussion the Haines resolution was changed to read that a committee of five be appointed to wait on the board of public works and talk over the question of increasing the snow removal equipment. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

President Dempsey appointed Alderman Haines, Moore, Everett, Hains and O'Reilly as such a committee.

Two Resolutions.

Alderman Fox introduced a resolution that the small light on Delaware avenue in front of Cordis Hose Company be replaced with an arc light; and that an arc light be placed on the corner of North and Beach streets. They were referred to the board of public works.

Bills and claims were read and referred to the auditing committee and the council then adjourned.

Mike Box Opening.

The annual Mike Box opening of the W. F. M. S. of Clinton Avenue M. E. Church will be held Friday, March 5, in the church parlors. Mrs. G. B. Smith, who has spent some time in southern India, will be the speaker. Mrs. Smith is the wife of the Kingston district superintendent.

Fire Department Called 57 Times

Soft Coal Sets Record for Number of Calls to City's Fire Department
 With 54 Calls in January and 23
 So far This Month.

The fact that householders have been forced to burn soft coal owing to the anthracite coal strike has kept the city's fire department on the jump and since the first of the year the department has responded to 57 calls, the majority of which were caused by soft coal fires. This establishes a record for the number of fire calls in Kingston for two months.

During January the fire department responded to 54 calls and so far this month to 23 calls. The department was called out twice this morning. The first call was for a chimney fire at 414 Delaware avenue
 and the other call at noon for a fire in the fire place at 53 St. James street.

Buys Champion Saddle Horse

After much persuasion and at a fancy price, K. E. Archer, of the firm of S. Cohen's Sons of this city, has purchased from Clifford Anderson the beautiful chestnut saddle
 horse and high jumper (The Prince)
 which is considered one of the best saddle horses seen hereabouts in years. He was a blue ribbon winner in his class for horses suitable to become hunters and was reserved champion for high jumpers at the Rhinebeck fair last year. In both classes there were a number of entries from Poughkeepsie and the Millbrook Hunt Club. Mr. Archer is now the owner of two of the finest saddle horses in this part of the country.

COLLEGE CLUB ENJOYS BANQUET AND MUSIC

On February 9 the College Club held a banquet at the Y. W. C. A.
 After partaking of the delicious repast prepared by Mrs. Daley, the members enjoyed a program of music.
 Miss Ruth Scott introducing the artists.

Miss Jessie Cowley, soprano, sang
 "Serenade" by Tosti, "Il Bano" by Arduini, and "Until" as an encore.
 Miss Ruth Dana, pianist, played
 "Nocturne" and "Waltz" by Chopin,
 following these with "The Quill Dance."

For a group of children's songs
 Miss Cowley appeared in an attractive doll costume. She sang "I love the old doll best" by Gaynor, "Hot Mr.
 Piper" by Curran, "Animal Crackers"
 by Hageman, "The Swing" by Lehman, and "The Jap Doll" by Gaynor.
 Miss Dana closed the program with the "Nocturne" by Jongs.

AUTOMOBILE BATTERIES DO NOT DO IT HE SAYS.

Discussing Mr. Strezynski's theory that misuse of automobile batteries
 may cause some of the noise heard on radio sets, a letter has been received which, directed of needless insulting statements, says:

A set cannot act as a transmitter unless it is in operation and we are wondering if G. J. Strezynski ever had a set connected to an auto battery and in operation while the auto engine was running. If not he has an enjoyable experience ahead of him, to say nothing of the possibility of getting rid of several vacuum tubes.

New York, Feb. 17.—The range of prices in the stock market today was comparatively narrow and the volume of trading smaller.

Selling pressure on Baldwin Locomotive stock that stock down 3 points
 to a new low at 108 1/2.

The public utility stocks, under the lead of Consolidated Gas and the tobacco stocks, led by American Tobacco, Tobacco Products and Lorillard, pushed up from 1 to 5 points in the most active movement of the month to date. International Mercantile Marine Company and preferred made new high price records for the year in fairly active trading.

Cheapeake and Ohio and Baltimore and Ohio advanced and Atlantic Coast Line sold about 3 points higher.

Copper stocks were dull and heavy.
 Some demand was seen for the oil
 stocks and equipments but prices
 were irregular.

Coal Pact Is Ratified, 698 to 2

Strike Order Will Be Lifted at Midnight Tonight—Thousands of Coal Cars Awaiting Shipment.

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 17.—Peace in the anthracite industry was today
 an established fact.

The strike order will be lifted at midnight tonight, and the mining
 of coal will begin at once.

The strike settlement agreement arrived at by union leaders and the operators at Philadelphia five days ago was ratified last night by the tri-district convention of anthracite miners by the overwhelming vote of 698 to 2.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the formal wage contract will be signed in the office of Major W. W. Inglis, chairman for the operators' negotiating committee.

The 700 delegates ratified the compact after speeches by members of the miners' negotiating committee who said the result of their negotiations was one of the greatest victories ever achieved by organized labor.

There was scarcely any criticism of the strike settlement. The delegates believed they had achieved
 peace with honor.

Thousands of coal cars are today
 on the sidings awaiting shipment.

Odds and Ends

 2 o'clock from the late residence.
 Interment in Mountain View Cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. John Miller of Alhambra was held from the Free Methodist Church at Alhambra on Sunday, the services being conducted by the Rev. Charles Main of Pine Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Main and Miss Jesse Ellsworth of Pine Hill sang several selections that were favorites of Mrs. Miller. The church was filled with friends and relatives.
 Interment was in the Shandaken
 rural cemetery.

William A. Kennedy died in this city on Tuesday. Mr. Kennedy for a number of years was associated with his son, Orren M. Kennedy, in the automobile business at the Central Garage on Broadway. Previous to that he was manager of the old Kingston Carriage Company reposi-

The funeral of Margaret A. Reddy, wife of Michael T. McDonough, was held this morning from the late residence, 18 South Sterling street, at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. J. Connelley of St.
 Joseph's Church, where a requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of her soul by the Rev. Louis Connelley, pastor of the church. The church was filled with sorrowing relatives and friends and the funeral services were of a most beautiful nature. At the conclusion of the Mass and as the body was being borne from the church the choir rendered very fittingly "Jesus, Christ, Come to Me." The bearers were Patrick McDonough, Charles Con-
 nelley, Thomas McDonough, Edward Connelley, Edward Connelley and William Connelley. The Rev. Eugene A. Donnan accompanied the body to the St. Mary's cemetery, where he conducted the funeral services.

 Agnes Maraldt as bridesmaid.
 Charles Schopinski, a brother of the groom, was best man. After a honeymoon trip they will reside in Highland.

Sickler-Whitaker.

Edward Sickler of Saugerties and Miss Hazel Whitaker of Glacoe were united in marriage on Sunday, February 14, at the rectory of St. Mary's Church of Saugerties, by the Rev.
 Martin P. O'Garra. The attendants were Miss Martha Kime, a cousin of the bride, and Robert Sickler of Kingston, a brother of the groom.
 After the wedding the couple went to the home of the bride where a supper was served and later they left by train for East Orange, N. J., where they will spend their honeymoon.

Sorosis Banquet.

On Monday evening the members of Sorosis enjoyed their annual banquet which was held in the delicious room of the Y. M. C. A. A banquet six-course dinner was admirably
 served, the decorations for the occasion being appropriate to St. Valentine and very pretty. The flowers were the gift of Mrs. Van Wageningen.
 Mrs. Lorraine Wood, the president of the club, acted as toastmistress, three toasts being responded to as follows:

Sorosis, by Mrs. Lasher; A Club
 Woman's Attitude Toward the Public Library, by Miss Brewster; and Memories of Days Gone By, by Mrs.
 Drake. Those present also enjoyed stunts and games and several songs were sung. It was a delightful occasion. The committee having the banquet in charge was composed of Mrs. Brigham, Mrs. St. John and Mrs. Clum for Mrs. Church. Next week Sorosis will meet with Mrs. A.
 L. Hanstein at her home, 83 Johnston avenue.

Love-Match-Shapiro.

A very pretty wedding was held at the Concourse Plaza Hotel in New York city on Valentine's Day, Sunday, February 14, when Miss Helen Shapiro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
 Barnett M. Shapiro of 155 East
 Thirty-ninth street, New York city,
 became the bride of Jack Leverthal,
 son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Leverthal
 of 202 Washington avenue, Kingston. The affair was a very elaborate one which drew 200 guests attended. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Leverthal of New York city. After the wedding the young married couple left for their honeymoon of which they will spend one week in Atlantic City, three weeks in Havana, Cuba, and six weeks travelling the United States, after which they will make their home at 120 West Seventy-sixth street, New York city. The groom is a former resident of Kingston, conducts a manufacturing business, establishment at 25-27 West Twenty-sixth street, New York city.

Succop-Rydswald.

A very pretty wedding took place
 in the immaculate Conception Church on Sunday, February 14,
 when Miss Anna Rydswald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rydswald of 23 Jarrold street, became the bride of Peter Succop of 134 Gross street. The bride was handsomely gowned in white bridal attire with train and veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses.
 She was attended by her sister,
 Agnes, who wore a light blue gargantua dress trimmed with ribbons
 and carried a bouquet of pink roses.
 She was also attended by Miss Belle Rydswald who wore a salmon gown
 with ribbons and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Peter Succop and Thomas Hickey acted as best men. During the ceremony Mrs.

Grade Crossings Bill Is Passed

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 17.—The senate today passed the bill by Senator Hewitt, setting up machinery for the elimination of up-state grade crossings. The money for the elimination work is to be taken from the bond issue for $300,000,000 which was approved by the people of the state at the last election. The public service commission will prepare a plan for the elimination of the crossings.

Rotary Hears Talk On Tolerance

Much of the Rotary luncheon
 program this week was informal,
 consisting of brief reports by members who were called upon to give an account of themselves while on trips away from Kingston and reports by three members who have boys under their care. In one instance much of the boy's perversity
 was found due to need for surgical treatment, which was given. The delights of the trip to Denver and Yellowstone Park next June were also pictured.

The formal part of the program
 was a short address by Arthur Morrill, suggested by portions of Judge Clearwater's address a week ago. Mr. Morrill elaborated the importance of the individual, his responsibility, his share in responsibility, his right to differ in details while united on such basic things as justice, tolerance, liberty, honesty and observance of law. In this, the most cosmopolitan entry in the world, Mr. Morrill said, there should be no interference with the rights of the individual or the group.

Slugging Will Beat Suzanne

According to Mrs. Molla Malloy Who Once Caused French Champion to Resign—Hard Hitting Only Method to Whip Mile Lenglen.

(By Davis J. Walsh.)

New York, Feb. 17.—Helen Willis tried to do a buck and wing with a competitive Pavlova when she should have forgotten her footwork and remembered to punch the lady in the nose, so to speak.

This, somewhat stripped of its elegance was the essence of a post mortem on the Willis-Lenglen meeting, delivered today by one who has beaten and lost to both of them, to wit, Mrs. Molla Malloy.

But she once caused Suzanne to "resign" under fire, and therefore can speak without embarrassment. She did.

Her message was to the general effect that Helen Willis will continue to lose to Suzanne, unless she alters her tactics, pronto. It seems that there is only one way to defeat the lady of France and Helen tried to use all the others.

Helen has nobody to advise her or she wouldn't have tried to fence with "Mile Lenglen," Mrs. Malloy said. "She should have started slugging with the first exchange and never stopped. In 1921 when I first faced the French girl, Bill Tilden told me to knock the cover off the ball. I did it. The result was that I won the first set and Mile Lenglen defaulted after I took the first two points in the second set.

"It seems to me that Helen had a better chance to win on the hard courts of southern France than she will have later at Wimbledon. These help her footwork and in addition, they have much in common with her California courts.

"She had her big chance on Tuesday and might have made the most of it had she been better advised. Hard hitting is the only system by which you can hope to take the play away from Mile Lenglen. Helen is noted for her hard hitting. It is suicidal for a sluggier to try to spar with an expert boxer."

Georges Carpentier, sitting nearby, was moved to polite though somewhat melancholy agreement.

"You might say that I was like Suzanne and Dempsey like Helen," he said. "It was my hope to feint and box with Dempsey. But he came crowding in upon me, swinging a lot of punishing punches and boxing was out of the question."

Capt. John I. McIlwan, new football coach of the University of Oregon, is the fourth gridiron specialist the Eugene institution has had in four years.

Hugh McQuillen, one-time star of the New York Giant putting staff, suspended last year for failing to keep in condition, was reinstated automatically.

Birmingham of the Southern league, has obtained pitcher Andy Rush from Waterbury of the Eastern league. Rush was the property of the Brooklyn Robins for some time.

The Culver City (California) tennis club is to have 25 courts. Harry Snodgrass is to be professional coach of the organization. The club will limit its membership to 1,000.

Yost of Michigan and Zuppie of Illinois have met six times on the gridiron. Each has three victories to his credit. Michigan won in 1921, 1922 and 1925 and Illinois in 1919, 1920 and 1924.

STOP ITCHING SKIN

Zemo the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid, Gives Prompt Relief

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and that cleanses and soothes the skin. Soon after the first application of Zemo you will find that irritations, Pimples, Blackheads, Eczema, Blisters, Ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear.

Zemo is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions, makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy. It is a non-grasy, disappearing liquid that may be applied during the day. Ask your druggist for a small size 60c or large bottle $1.00.

Helen Prepares For Next Week

Beaulieu, France, Feb. 17.—Mile Lenglen, the victor, rests at her home in Nice today while Helen Willis, the vanquished, plunges into more strenuous play, preparing for their next meeting.

The next meeting is still indefinite, dependent upon the vagaries of the temperamental and sadly worn, Suzanne.

If the play is made according to the present writing on the books, Suzanne must again face the dogged and determined Helen across the nets during the week of March 8 at Nice.

Suzanne has announced that she does not intend to play in singles again until the Nice tournament, and furthermore she doesn't apparently care much whether she meets Miss Willis again for a long time.

"I will play in the singles at Nice, and Helen may enter," said Suzanne, laconically. "I intend to keep right on playing." said Miss Willis, determined to pass up no opportunity at meeting Suzanne.

OSBORNE AWARDED FOUR PLACES ON ALL-AMERICAN

New York, Feb. 17.—Harold M. Osborne, Illinois A. C. all around champion, was the man of the hour in track and field athletics today. He was awarded four places on the all-American team, selected by Frederick W. Rublen, secretary of the American Athletic Union, outranking all other stars. He was rated at the top in the running high jump, the standing high and broad jumps and in the Decathlon.

Willie Ritola was recognized as the leader at two miles, ten miles and cross country running.

THIRD ROUND OF NATIONAL INDOOR TENNIS MEET

New York, Feb. 17.—All of the head liners, with the exception of William T. Tilden, will go into action today in the third round of the national indoor tennis championships. Vincent Richards, No. 3 in the national ranking list, drew the stiffest assignment, being scheduled to meet Maurice Ferrier, champion of Switzerland, who forced Richards into extra games to win at a recent tournament.

All three of the invading French were scheduled to play.

His "Pickup" Claimed

Somebody stole E. R. Kerfoot's car at Hutchinson, Kan., and when it was returned to him from Missouri, Kerfoot found 100 $50 bills in the spare tire. Kerfoot wasn't caring if the car was stolen again at that rate, but an Oklahoma bank has since claimed the $5,000. Bandits had used Kerfoot's car in robbing the bank, overlooking the threat of foot afterward.

Just a Little Smile

BUT THEY NEVER DO

"We wouldn't have much trouble paying your salary, parson, if—" began the deacon, who then paused to look around at the crowd who had come in for the church supper.

"If what?" inquired the parson.

"If," continued the deacon, "folks were as willing to give until it hurt as they are to eat until it does."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Bulls

Mamie de Payster came home to Mamma de Payster after a big party and exclaimed: "Oh, mamma, I met the most wonderful boy, George Rayner."

Must Placate the Child

A well-known actor was playing to a crowded house, but was frequently interrupted by the squalling of a child in the gallery.

At last the noise grew so unbearable that the actor abandoned his lines and said, "Ladies and gentlemen, unless this play is stopped, the child cannot possibly go on!"

Loves His Work

"You have no idea what a really big executive gets out of business," declared the New Yorker.

"No."

"Gets down just in time for lunch and then he plays golf."

"What if it rains?"

"There's the matinee."

WHO'S "BEST?"

Hubby—I love you—a better half.

Speed Buggy, Ferintance

"Is this the buggy horse?"

"Is 'bout extinct," growled Hiram Weepie.

"Not in this motor age."

"There is no lack of buggy people."

Two of a Kind

"I just met Jones. I asked him for five dollars to help me out of a difficulty and he refused. I didn't think there were such mean men in the world!"

"Oh, yes there are! I'm another!"

How They Get It

Sweet Young Thing—You say they make paper from those trees? That's a funny-looking tree over there."

Lumberman—Yes, it'll be a funny paper some day.

Practice

Wellington—Can I borrow a cigarette?

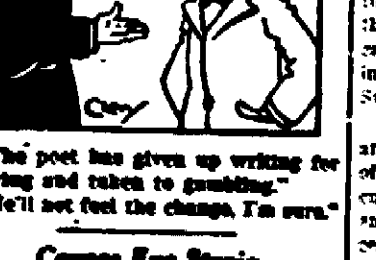

Warrington (terse)—Well, you ought to be able to—you've had enough practice.—Answers.

Case

Magistrate—Why should I show you mercy? This isn't your first offense.

Prisoner—No, your honor, but it's my lawyer's first case.

HE'LL NOT FEEL CHANGE

"The poet has given up writing for a living and taken to gambling."

"He'll not feel the change, I'm sure."

Common Eye Strain

"They are called away on the eye. And get 'em out," said Cruise.

"That looking at the girl like that is what does cause eye strain."

At the Reception

Maude—Why, look at that girl, she's hardly got anything on.

Robert—Well, it says on the O'Brien that "dress is optional."

A Trade Trick

"Are you familiar with Browning?"

"Yes. I've been a baker for 12 years."—Fitz Fraucher.

Swedenborg Had Few Equals in Versatility

The annual Swedenborgian convention in Cincinnati a few weeks ago reveals the man from which this small set of sects derived its name. Emanuel Swedenborg of Sweden, who as poet, mystic, mathematician, tinsmith, inventor, says Time.

Da Vinci himself could not look down on him: Franklin's achievements cover a narrower range. There was seemingly nothing he could not do, nothing he did not do. In the early 1700s.

Did the lack of boats and galleys force Charles XII of Sweden with disaster at the siege of Frederiksboll? Emanuel Swedenborg invented a machine to transport them overland. Did youths need verses in Latin for women? They applied to Swedenborg. Did house chimneys smoke or the deaf suffer? Swedenborg cured the chimneys and gave the deaf an ear trumpet. Did the world need an interpretation of the Scriptures? Swedenborg furnished one.

He produced a report on auditing and assessing which was a masterpiece of detail; he guided Sweden in its currency policy, dealt with the balance of trade and the liquor laws, answered all Scandinavian questions, arrived at the nebular hypothesis to explain the formation of planets long before Kant and Laplace, was an original chemist, sketched a flying machine.

But with all this done and learned, he still lay flat and unimpassioned on Swedenborg's tomb. He sought, like Paracelsus, the infinite and the spiritual; and neither geometrical, nor physical, nor metaphysical principles led him to them. But they were to be found. And so to work on a new path. Then, in 1749, "heaven was opened to him by direct spiritual revelation from God."

The New Man

It is true that man is gradually being forced to take up the domestic arts. Former the Wilmington Evening Star. It blames it all on women's efforts to enter the masculine realm. "He is forced to attend to the babies," says the paper, "wash dishes and dust the living room"—and, it needs to wear a gingham apron—while mother is playing bridge or attending a lecture on the subject of "Wives and Mothers." The natural consequence is that the poor man, saturated by an atmosphere of domesticity, takes on an effeminate air before he realizes it. He finds himself walking in a woman's manner and answering the door bell with a twirl of the head and a posture of the hands that reminds one of Miss Butler."

Her Good Work Unseen

After 25 years in theatrical showbiz, Madame Lemercier has reached the top of her profession in Paris, but the public still will see nothing of her. Madame Lemercier is a character actress. She has been appointed a delegate to the Cannes Film Festival. Her leading scene theater, "L'Amour Bourgeois," is now in its 10th year.

It is almost every parish in Paris—some of them burned to separate quarters, some attached to the churches and churches maintained by the church, there has been established a "L'Amour Bourgeois" or restaurant.
